1. Applicant's Amendment filed on August 25, 2003 has been entered and carefully considered. Claims 1-6, 8 and 9 have been allowed. However, arguments regarding the rejection 35 U.S.C. 102(b) based on the reference of EP0834977 to the claim 7 have not been found to be persuasive. Therefore, claim 7 is rejected under the same ground of rejection as set forth in the Office Action mailed on June 11, 2003.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by EP0834977.

With regard to claim 7, EP0834977 shows a power conversion circuit comprising a DC power source (1), a polyphase AC motor (3), an extra device (11) and a capacitor (between A3 and A4) having one terminal connected to a neutral point (34) of the AC motor and another terminal connected to the extra device (see Fig. 1).

Applicant has argued that in the specification, the power conversion circuit supplies power from an AC motor 603 to an auxiliary power source 103, an extra device, through a capacitor and a rectifying circuit 102, whereas the power conversion circuit in EP0834977 has a different operation. However, the limitations on which the applicant relies are not stated in the claims. It is the claims that define the claimed invention, and it the claims, not specification that are anticipated or unpatentable. Constant v. Advanced Micro-Devices Inc., 7 USPQ2d 1064.

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
